Infowar Definition:

Infowar is not physical combat. That is called war.

The term infowar is not new. It has been used in the past by militaries to mean information war. The term was made more popular by Alex Jones and his news website infowars.com. Because of infowars.com, infowar now also means spreading information that exposes the new world order as an evil corrupt world order.

What is an Info Warrior?

The association of the term infowar with the content of infowars.com led to the labeling of people who oppose the new world order as Info Warriors. An Info Warrior is just a person who tries to oppose the new world order peacefully by exposing the new world order for what it really is. It is a world order that is nothing but evil and leads to death and suffering.

What is the New World Order?

The new world order (N.W.O.) is a term that is used in two ways. It means the people who are in control of our planet and it also means their goal of a world order where they are in control of everything. That is why you will hear the term used in two ways. The people in control of our world are organized in levels. The highest levels are not even human but are the fallen angels with Satan as the top leader of the entire N.W.O. Generally speaking the hierarchy looks like this: Satan is the leader of the entire world and the N.W.O. Below him are the fallen angels who are arraigned in levels. Below the fallen angels are the human levels starting with the religious level which is the Catholic Church and the Jesuits. Not every person in the Catholic church is part of the N.W.O. and the people who call themselves Catholic are not automatically part of the N.W.O. Satan created the Catholic church starting in the year 312 because he couldn't stop Christianity just by killing Christians so he decided to create his own church to trick everyone by mixing in his pagan religious practices. Below the religious level is the royalty level. The kings and queens and other royalty and the aristocrats are below the royal levels. Just like the religious level not everyone is automatically involved just because they are royal or an aristocrat. The next level down are the think tanks and round tables that help to influence government policies and educations around the world. Those are the control and planning levels like the generals and colonels in the army. The levels below are the people who actually perform the actions of building the N.W.O. like the lieutenants and lower ranks of an army that actually do the fighting.

The next level is made up of various types of people. They are very wealthy people, famous people, politicians, public servants, corporate business leaders and other types of people that have influence in society. This level is known as the illuminati and they know they are part of the N.W.O. Below these levels are levels of people who are manipulated and tricked into following the N.W.O. and carrying out their plans but they are not members.

All these levels are divided into sections that work on different areas. Taking over the world and controlling it is a very complicated job so the power structure is very complicated but you don't have to know everyone involved or every detail to understand what they are doing to us.

Their N.W.O. is almost complete. They have set up their world banks to control world finances and they have their Jesuits and other agents infiltrated into all religions of the world. Their world government which is the United Nations controls education, science and culture through UNESCO and world health through the World Health Organization (W.H.O.) They have control over our technology and information using media and big tech companies like Google, Youtube, Twitter, Facebook and others which are used as part of their technocratic control of the world.

One Absolute Explanation

There is one absolute explanation for what is happening in the universe. If you are trying to find it, then it would be helpful to have that explanation in a short paragraph to get yourself started and then look at the proof after and decide if it is true. In its simplest form and without any detail or proof the explanation of the absolute picture is as follows:

"Six thousand years ago God created our universe and everything in it. There was no evil at all. God gave us the ability to choose to obey him or not to obey him so that we could truly be free. Eventually one angel chose to disobey God and try to take over God's position of authority. That is when evil came into existence. Since then there has been a battle between good and evil and we are at the end of that battle now. Soon God will restore us to a state of being where evil is not possible and we can live forever in paradise. You won't have the freedom of choice anymore to disobey God but if you are there you will have chosen that already.

This very broad and simple explanation without details actually accounts for everything that has happened on earth and it can be proven. The alternative stories such as evolution or alien creators of humans are also accounted for by the above statement and are disproved so the explanation is very strong and it shows one absolute picture. There is a key to understanding and proving the absolute picture faster and more easily. There are three points to keep in mind: know both sides of the battle which are the good side and the evil side, understand prophecy and understand the earth's 6000 year timeline. This will lead you to the conclusion that the absolute picture is complete and accurate and it is confirmed by science and history while proving the alternatives to be false.

As you are learning how the absolute picture looks you will have dozens or even hundreds of questions. Keep in mind the three key points as you study the absolute picture and you will see that the battle is between Satan and Jesus and the 6000 year timeline of history can be divided into major time periods. But the basis of all the proof are the prophecies told by God. This is because only God can know thousands of years into the future and tell us about it before it happens.

The only version of prophecy that is accurate and confirmed by science and history and that proves the other explanations false is the version that is presented in the line of bibles known as the original text line. It is the same line that the King James Bible comes from.

Infowar is the Battle of Good vs. Evil

To fully understand the absolute picture of the infowar, you have to go back to the time when God created angels and humans and the planet earth, to find the roots of what lead to the infowar. The root cause is Satan's corruption and desire to place himself above God. After 6000 years of trying and failing to destroy God's creation and take over God's authority, Satan is currently on his final attempt. That attempt is called the New World Order and it started over four hundred years ago in the year 1588. The infowar and the info warriors are the movement and the people who oppose the New World Order.

The New World Order is an enormous topic. It was created to control every aspect of life on earth. To best understand what the New World Order is and how it works you always need to keep topics in perspective and in context. While you are studying the infowar remember that the New World Order was created by Satan and is controlled by Satan and a hierarchy of spirits and humans who wish to remain hidden while they operate. Satan is about 6000 years old and is extremely intelligent and evil and he and his followers hate God. Remember that God is real and all the spirits and humans are His creations with the freedom to make their own choices. God has the supreme authority and He will very soon end evil forever.

The way regular people see the world is not the same way that the members of the New World Order see the world. Regular people think much smaller than the New World Order. Regular people don't think about manipulating populations of countries by using murder, bribery or blackmail or by creating complex organizations to infiltrate governments and countless other schemes. Regular people don't think about ways to kill millions of people who choose to follow God instead of Satan. Regular people are not perfect but they try to do good and avoid evil. Sometimes they make mistakes but they are usually trying to create good things and treat others well. The vast majority of problems of all the countries in our world are created by the New World Order and not by regular people.
